From the section Cricket Sixth man Mitchell Marsh went through one of his worst batting form niggles Australia's Mitchell Marsh has been ruled out of the third One-Day International against Sri Lanka next week with a thumb injury. Marsh went through one of his worst batting form niggles on Sunday, when he lasted just nine balls against India and was run out. Australia will field three spinners in that match, with Marsh set to miss the second ODI. England's Liam Plunkett has been added to the squad. Marsh has played one ODI for Australia before, against Bangladesh in 2012. The 26-year-old has started only one Test for Australia - against India in November 2016 - and scored 51 runs in two innings. Australia's squad for the second ODI: Tim Paine (c), Ashton Agar, Glenn Maxwell, Marcus Harris, James Faulkner, Travis Head, Aaron Finch, Peter Handscomb, Matthew Wade, Matthew Renshaw, Mitchell Marsh, Jhye Richardson, Kane Richardson, D'Arcy Short, Adam Zampa, Sean Abbott Find all the latest cricket fixtures and live stream cricket matches on the BBC Sport app. Editable Primary Content — Mobirise Builder As a web designer, it's critical to provide your clients with a custom and beautiful website that is easy for them to update and maintain. If you know anything about a website, it's that they will change over time, and in order for them to evolve, you as the developer have to give them the ability to make changes themselves. While we as designers understand this, it can be extremely frustrating for clients to spend hours trying to find the video, text, or image they want to edit. In order to solve this problem, Mobirise allows you to create a Builder that can be shared with your clients to make edits on your website. All your work is in one place, and when something needs to be fixed, they only have to click into the Builder, and make their changes. Even if you don't have time to build your own Builder, you can still share it with your
